

John Stitz Sr. Managing Partner

John Stitz is co-founder and principal owner of enVista where he is currently the Sr. Managing Partner of enVista's thriving transportation services practice. With more than 20 years of supply chain, distribution and transportation experience, Stitz has delivered value for leading companies including Cutter & Buck, Woot, Hillerich & Bradsby, Genesco and Vera Bradley.

Prior to co-founding enVista, Stitz served as Senior Director of Strategic Alliances at Manhattan Associates, Vice President of Marketing and Strategic Alliances at Intrepa and Vice President of Sales and Marketing at The Summit Group. He has a bachelor's degree from St. Joseph's College.

Stitz is a regular speaker at industry tradeshow and events.

Outside of work, Stitz spends his spare time with his family, coaching youth sports and attending youth sporting activities.