

Mike Rader

Vice President, Implementation Services

Mike Rader joined enVista in 2004 to lead the company's Implementation Services team. Rader brings more than 15 years of warehouse management systems implementation, project management and best practices experience, as well as a collaborative approach to client teams, including: Skechers, Disney, Payless Shoes Source, Pearson Education, Gerber Baby Products and Brightpoint.

Prior to enVista, Rader served as Senior Director of Services at Manhattan Associates and Vice President of Services at Intrepa.

Rader is well known in the supply chain industry and a regular speaker at tradeshow and user conferences. He has also been interviewed for articles in STORES magazine and Modern Materials Handling.

In his spare time, Rader is active in coaching youth sports in his community and is a passionate golfer.